Mr. GOEBEL is a sweet-scented geranium to talk about fraud.

GOEBEL is dying mighty hard, but when it does die it will be dead a mighty long time.

The name of GOEBEL will go wobbling down the bawling alleys of Time leaving a bad smell in its wake.

GOEBEL & HARRIS make a fitting firm—just exactly six letters in each and a half dozen in the other.

With the death of Goebelism the political aspirations of several Maysville gentlemen will be buried so deep that GABRIEL's horn will not resurrect them.

The L. and N. earnings for the first week of November were $43,225 gross, an increase of $63,255. And this in spite of the vigorous war made upon the road by BILL GOREL.

A HORN has recovered has been made public. They have found "Ankles, toun, Duncane's Nutmeg." Wonder if this could have been GOEBEL's name before he emigrated to Kentucky?

The men who steal elections should be treated the same way as the courts treat those who steal money.—Sunday Morning Call.

True as preachin', Brother; but instead of being sent to the Penitentiary the vote takers are generally sent to the Legislature or to Congress.

There was a meeting in Cincinnati to "sympathize" with the Boers, and Jules R. McLean, late Democratic candidate for Governor, was one of the Vice-Presidents. Sympathy is all right, but it does not win battles. You are in earnest in the matter, "JOHNNY, get your gun!"

The combined vote of Jones and McLean, the opposition candidates in Ohio, exceeded that of Nasby by over 50,000. Yet the Administration feels that a great "victory" has been gained.—Richmond Register.

Jesse, Judge! And the combined vote of Taylor and Brown in Kentucky exceed that of GOEBEL by fully 35,000. Yet the Goebelites claim a victory for their disreputable leader.

GOEBEL defended his law on the ground that it was necessary to prevent fraud in elections. The election just passed was held under the provisions of that law, and in nearly every Precinct in Kentucky there were two Goebel election officers and only one Republican election officer; while in many places there was no Republican committee at all yet. Maysville's two handmen are belling about frauds. It will strike the average citizen as a little strange how the minority officers managed to get away with the majority gang.

In the count of the vote from the Thirty-first Precinct of the Tenth Ward of Louisville there was a lively debate between Mr. J. T. O'NEAL, attorney for the Republicans, and Judge HANCOCK for the Democrats.

"I am a better Democrat than you are," remarked Mr. O'NEAL to Judge HANCOCK.

"I am a better Democrat than I," responded Judge HANCOCK. "A good Democrat doesn't vote the Republican ticket. Mr. O'NEAL."

Of course not, Tom—that is such "good Democrat" as yourself. They simply mutilate Rowan county records, tear a leaf out of the family Bible, and do such other innocent things. But, Tom, they always vote the Democratic ticket straight—from GOEBEL to AGUSTIN ALDO.

The new towboat T. H. Davis was bought Saturday by Captain Oscar F. Barrett, who represents the Chamber of Commerce, which was sunk in the Mississippi River.

If you have seen that enormous across the back or side, or your fingers feel sore or tender, or you are threatened with diphtheria or pneumonia, apply Ballard's Saw-Light Liniment and the Cousin's Honey of Ta-Jo, Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. Andrew C. Mitchell, who has been an "on and off" man at the Cincinnati wharves since early last summer, will start to Bessie-uer, Alas., on a prospecting tour and if business turns up as we expect it will, he may remain there.

WORKS A NEW SCHEME.

Grocery Purchases the Alleged Bad Check and After Banking It the Day the Proprietor Skipped Out.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—J. F. McDonald, a smooth young man, has been working a new scheme here lately, doubtless invented that he wanted to buy a grocery. He agreed to take one from Mrs. S. McHale, Saturday afternoon, after banking hours, he appeared, paid for the grocery with a check for $1,000, ran it that afternoon and evening, and the next day, it is said, took all the money paid in several boxes of cigars and all the goods he had carelessly borrowed from Mrs. McHale, and left town. The check, it is alleged, is worthless. It develops that he tried to work the same scheme in Jeffersonville, but the grocery proprietor refused to take the check.

CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES!

WEDNESDAY,
DECEMBER 6, 1899,

Is our Reception Day. From a bower of roses and palms a famous orchestra will discourse sweet music all day long.

Souvenirs of Flowers for all Lady Visitors.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this reception. 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. Wednesday, December 6, 1899.

An intimate acquaintance with the good people of Mason and surrounding counties has taught me that "There is nothing too good for them," and I have brought to Maysville the most elegant stock of Holiday Furniture ever exhibited in any town of less than 100,000 inhabitants. In fact Eastern traveling men openly state that these goods would do credit to any city. Having spent seven months collecting this stock of novelties, during which time I have searched all of America and part of Europe, I feel that I am entitled to some consideration at your hands. Not being of a very bashful nature I have no hesitancy in asking you for what I feel is due me, namely, that you take one day off and inspect this superb stock of Holiday Furniture and Novelties. I devoted seven months to gathering these novelties to Maysville; surely you can devote one day to an inspection of them. You will find that the time will pass pleasantly; delightful music will rest and soothe you when the eyes are tired feasting upon the beautiful novelties gathered from many Eastern cities and foreign climes; sweet scented flowers will rest the mind while the tired body reclines in easy Turkish chairs; affable salesmen will answer all inquiries concerning quality and price without attempting to consummate a sale. Let it be distinctly understood that no attempt will be made to consummate a sale of any article upon this day. If you purchase it will be your own fault. No effort will be made to sell you, for this is our RECEPTION DAY, and we desire only what we ask, viz., YOUR PRESENCE.

Retrospective: A little less than two years ago we appeared in your midst with a new plan—a new method of doing business. A cynical public and indignant competitors stood amazed when we announced our intention of selling Furniture and Farm Implements for cash at one price to all and that price just 10 per cent. above what the article cost in carload lots. We hoisted our 10-per-cent.-for-cash flag and the fight was on. Competition was indignant over the fact that a stranger would dare to interfere with their old-time war profits. A cynical public doubted our integrity; friendly manufacturers doubted our ability to exist upon a profit of 10 per cent., and the battle went merrily on.

THE TRUTH IS MIGHTY AND WILL PREVAIL.

If there is a man, woman or child now today in five counties that does not know and realize that The Price Fighter is in Maysville and Brooksville selling Furniture and Machines at 10 per cent. profit I would like to have his photograph. The Price Fighter has fulfilled every promise, and defies anyone to deny this fact. Speak out now or forever afterwards hold your peace. Thanking you one and all for your many kind words said in my behalf, I remain your friend,

JOHN I. WINTER, The Price Fighter.

A NATIONAL LOSS.

Vice President Hobart's Funeral
Will Take Place in Paterson,
N. J., Next Saturday.

PRESIDENT AND CABINET WILL ATTEND

The United States Supreme Court and the Senate Will Attend the Obsequies in a Body.

By the Death of Mr. Hobart Senator William F. Frye Becomes President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Will Act in That Capacity.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Vice President Hobart's funeral will be held Monday at the present and his cabinet, the supreme court, the senate in a body, and a large committee from the house of representatives, besides many other high dignitaries of the government who will journey to Paterson to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the vice president. Every senator has been invited to be present, and the senate will meet at the First Presbyterian Church in New York at 11 o'clock and thence travel in a body to Paterson.

Sergeant-at-Arms Bright has engaged a special train to convey the president and his cabinet and the United States supreme court to Paterson. The train will leave Washington over the Pennsylvania railroad at 7 o'clock Saturday morning and will arrive on the return at 4 p.m.

Chief Justice Fuller was not in the city Tuesday and in his absence no one could say whether the court would be able to attend the funeral in a body, but the officials of that tribunal generally expressed themselves as very confident that it would be so.

Owing to the fact that the house of representatives is without a speaker no arrangements with reference to the house have been made. Speaker Thaddeus H. Hopper, who will be the new speaker, telegraphed to Maj. McNewell, the chief of the house, at his home at Sharon, Pa., and Maj. McNewell was expected here Tuesday night. Upon his arrival he will consult Gen. Henderson and other representatives who are in the city and a committee will be appointed to attend the funeral.

The death of Vice President Hobart naturally recalls the death of Vice President Hendricks, who expired suddenly of paralysis of the heart, November 23, 1885. At the time the question of the succession to the presidency had not been settled by law, although Senator Hoar's bill providing for the presidential succession through the cabinet had been submitted on December 4, 1883, and had remained unengaged on the floor.

The news of Mr. Hendrick's death was received in Washington late on the afternoon of November 23. President Cleveland was at dinner when the news was brought to him by Secretary Lamont. Notices were sent at once to the members of the cabinet, and a special cabinet meeting was held that night. President Cleveland's first move was to dispatch a telegram of condolence to Mr. Hendricks, after which a proclamation was prepared making official an announcement of the vice president's death to the public, establishing a usage which was followed Tuesday by President McKinley.

Vice President Hendricks was in Indianapolis at the time of his death and through a similar series of circumstances, no one was in the room with him.

The law applicable to the vice presidency was enacted January 10, 1886, by the Forty-ninth congress, first session.

The main features are as follows:

"Be it enacted, etc. That in case of removal, death, resignation or inability of both the president and vice president of the United States, the secretary of state, or * * * secretary of the treasury, or * * * attorney general, or * * * secretary of the navy, or * * * secretary of the interior shall act as president until the disability of the president or vice president is removed, or a president shall be elected."

The law further provides that when one of the above cabinet officers succeeds to the presidency he shall call a special session of Congress to limit the duration of those who would be eligible to the presidency under the terms of the constitution and who have been appointed with the advice and consent of the senate.

The effect of the law is not to provide a succession to the vice presidency, but merely to insure a succession to the presidency.

By the death of Mr. Hobart, Senator William F. Frye, of Maine, becomes president pro tempore of the senate, and will direct all the proceedings of the vice president in presiding over the senate.

The senate rules specifically provide that no election is necessary at the beginning of the session. Senator Frye accordingly will continue as presiding officer till the end of President McKinley's administration unless he chooses to resign or the senate wishes to elect another senator to the office.

A serious coincidence of the death of Vice President Hobart is found in the fact that of the six vice presidents who have died in office, four have done so within the days of the same month in the year of their deaths. The death of Mr. Hobart being November 21, 1889; that of Mr. Wilson, November 22, 1875; that of Elbridge Gerry, November 23, 1814, and that of Hendricks, November 25, 1885. The other two vice presidents who died in office were Clinton and King. The former died April 10, 1841, and the latter April 18, 1868.

Washington, Nov. 23.—From dispatches received by Col. Bright, the sergeant-at-arms of senate, there will be a large representation of members of that body at the vice president's funeral. About 30 senators have replied to the telegram sent at the direction of Prof. Temm Fry, informing them of their selection as members of the committee to attend the funeral. Twenty-four of them have promised to do so. They are as follows:

Gallinger, W. A. Clark, Foraker, Bacon, Depew, McLaurin, Harris, Allison, Fairbanks, Hanna, Hawley, J. K. Jones, Hislop, Kyle, Burrows, Wetmore, Lindsey, Wolcott, McCormick, Sewell, Tillman, Mason, Scott, and Keay.

Col. Bright will go to Paterson in a day or two to make arrangements where he may be in the funeral preparations so far as the senate is concerned.

Clerk McDowell, of the house of representatives, arrived during the afternoon. As the result of a consultation with Prospective Speaker Headerson, he will make arrangements for a committee of the house to attend the funeral. This will include such members of the body as may be in the city, and will be of generous proportions.

Flags at Half-Mast in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The death of Vice President Hobart was a great shock to the people of New Jersey and New York, and expressions of profound grief were manifested throughout the country. The woman who was to be the new speaker, telegraphed to Maj. McNewell, the chief of the house, at his home at Sharon, Pa., and Maj. McNewell was expected here Tuesday night. Upon his arrival he will consult Gen. Henderson and other representatives who are in the city and a committee will be appointed to attend the funeral.

Chief Justice Fuller was not in the city Tuesday and in his absence no one could say whether the court would be able to attend the funeral in a body, but the officials of that tribunal generally expressed themselves as very confident that it would be so.

Owing to the fact that the house of representatives is without a speaker no arrangements with reference to the house have been made. Speaker Thaddeus H. Hopper, who will be the new speaker, telephoned to Maj. McNewell, the chief of the house, at his home at Sharon, Pa., and Maj. McNewell was expected here Tuesday night. Upon his arrival he will consult Gen. Henderson and other representatives who are in the city and a committee will be appointed to attend the funeral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—James J. Jeffries and John Corbett were Tuesday matched at boxing at the Madison Square Garden, or a 25 round fight or to finish if the last 10 minutes, on or about September 15 next. The fight will be under Queenbury rules.

Communication Interrupted.

LOXOP, Nov. 22.—The announcement from Durban that communication with Etcourt is interrupted seems to confirm the belief that a Boer commando has established itself at Willow Grange or near the Modder river and has cut the telegraph wires.

BIG FIRE IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—Fire Tuesday night did $5,000 to $7,000 damage in a six-story building at Portland and Sudbury streets owned by the Boston Real Estate Trust Co. and occupied by a number of manufacturers.

PITCHED BATTLE.

CITIZENS OF RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex.,
Attack the Colored Garrison at Fort Ringgold.

THREE THOUSAND SHOTS WERE FIRED.

ALL THE WOMEN AND CHILDREN HAVE BEEN SENT AWAY IN EXPECTATION OF MORE TROUBLE.

BANNERS ARE OUT AFTER REINFORCEMENTS
FOR THE CITIZENS—TROOPS FROM FORT
METROPOLE AND TEXAS BOSTON ARE BEING HURRIED TO THE TOWN.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 22.—Reports have reached here that there was a pitched battle at Fort Ringgold, Rio Grande City, Texas, between a company of the 9th United States cavalry (colored) and the citizens of the town, who numbered about 1,000, who attacked the post shortly after dark. Three thousand shots are said to have been fired during the fight, but the casualties are not known here.

It is also stated that all women and children have been sent away from Rio Grande City and that runners are out after reinforcements for the citizens. The military authorities are occupying the telegraph wires and fully report to the outside world that the affair is over. One is induced to believe that the activity in military circles here Maj. Thompson, in command at Fort Metropole, Tuesday brought up all the Krupp-Jergens ammunition in Laredo and is hurriedly loading a special train with mules, baggage, etc., to take the available force here to the scene of the trouble, and a special train is en route here from San Antonio to the post. The San Antonio troops are hurrying to the scene of the trouble. The State Adj't Gen. Steury, with a force of rangers, is expected here Tuesday night.

ATRON, Tex., Nov. 22.—Tuesday Gov. Sayers was in receipt of a telegram from the commanding officer of the United States troops at San Antonio conveying the information that there had been a raid at Rio Grande City, and that the citizens had been sent away from the town.

near to the Italian ambassador, Baron De Renzo Montanari. The Empress Augusta Victoria sat on the right of the prince of Wales, with Ambassador Choate in the sixth place on this side of the table, next to Princess Alice of Anhalt.

The queen sat at the center of the long table facing the prince of Wales. On her right was Emperor William and on her left the Empress Augusta Victoria, with the prince of Wales seated between them. The household cavalry, bearing lances, lined the grand staircase, while within the banqueting hall befeasters and royal yeomen formed a picturesque fringe.

ARE VALUABLE BONES

Skeleton of an Entelodon Magnum Discovered in Oregon.

Party from University of California Have Dug It Out of the Rock in Eastern Oregon—Dead in Good Condition.

About six weeks ago a party from the University of California went into Eastern Oregon in search of fossils. The party consisted of Prof. Merriam, Dr. Hirsch, one of the university students, Miller, and Frank Calkins. While on Cache creek young Calkins made a find worth the trouble of the whole trip. It was the skull and jaw of an entelodon, an animal allied to the hog, with a head about three feet long. Dr. Hirsch from Mitchell, Ore., a relative in this city Calkins describes his discovery:

"I found it by a single task racking out of the cliff. We set to work to dig it out, and after a few days of desultory digging decided that it would be done by scaling down the mass of rock from above it, nearly twenty feet high and five feet square. We found the head good condition, with the lower jaw beside it, and a good many other bones. I have never seen the second head of this genus than has been found, at least in this region."

The two-toed antelodon, also spelled entelodon, has not been very minutely described by natural historians, owing chiefly, it is supposed, to a lack of specimens. It is a large animal, and the genus is a species of swine dating from the early miocene period. It is classified scientifically as a mammal of the order ungulata, suborder artiodactyla.

The entelodon was a huge hog, with great tusks and indications of canine teeth. It is believed to have been carnivorous.

The specimen just found will supply scientists with information which they lack concerning this great extinct hog.

PRODUCT AND PRICES.

Chief of Bureau of Industrial Statistics' Annual Report Gives a Few Facts.

There is no place where the tremendous jump in the production of iron and steel is so manifest as in the forthcoming report of Capt. James M. Clark, chief of the bureau of industrial statistics of Pennsylvania. The comparisons are all with the year 1897, and they show the great upward movement, not only in production, but in prices.

Last year there was produced in that state $5,076,070 gross tons of pig iron, as against 4,617,631 tons the year before. The total value of the pig iron was $83,321, as against $51,000,000 in 1897. In this industry there were employed almost 12,000 men, who worked an average of 336 days. Their average yearly earnings were $422.22, an increase of nearly seven percent.

The total production of steel was 2,272,000 gross tons, or 55,702 tons as compared with 1897. The total production of iron and steel rolled in finished form last year was 5,537,240 tons, as against 4,714,333 tons the year before. Its value was $106,200,442, as against $123,900,771 in 1897.

ROTS GAS MAINS

Indiana Cities Face Explosions May Follow the Decomposition of Pipes by Electrolysis.

H. D. Brownell, an expert on electrolysis, called to make an investigation in gas belt cities, and made a sensational report in which he stated that the natural gas mains in Anderson, Muncie, Marion, and Indianapolis, and the cities of Indiana have been completely eaten away in many places and that the situation is serious at points. It is claimed that the pipes along the gas belt cities, especially, both in the cities named, have been badly decomposed and that an explosion is liable to occur at any time.

The city of Muncie has taken steps to change the route of the electric railway, which is being built into the city, to another street where there are no large mains. Brownell claims the entire pipe service of these cities will have to be gone over and that most of the pipes will be found in a very dangerous condition.

AUTOGRAPH VANDALS.

Maitland a Regular at War Department — How the Thief May Be Fooled.

At the war department there is a large blank book where officers coming to Washington register. This register is kept in the hall opposite the office of the adjutant general. Some one has mauled the book and cut out the names of prominent officers, particularly those who made themselves famous during the Spanish war. Among the many signatures which have been taken are those of Generals Shafter, Wood, Fitzhugh Lee, General Merritt, Butler and several others. It is impossible that oftentimes the signatures were written by the sides of the generals, so that all the names extracted are not the real autographs of the men.

RUSTING MUSHROOMS.

Mushroom "rusting" is a profitable business. Dr. William Watson, of Chester, Pa., produced 4,000 pounds of the vegetable in his hothouse during the past winter, the bulk of the plant being sold in New York and Washington at about 80 cents a pound.

Few Novel Readers in Japan.

Japanese do not care much for novels. Among 27,000 new books printed last year only 402 were works of fiction.

ASIATIC SQUADRON.

Secretary Long Intends Late in the Summer to Reduce the For-midable Fleet.

Long will reduce the formidable fleet under the command of Admiral Watson in Philippine waters. The purpose of withdrawing some of the ships is to release them for the construction of a new vessel to the Pacific Squadron, which is without a first-class ship; and give the officers and men an opportunity to recuperate from the effects of the encroaching climate of the China sea. Since the exchange of the ratifications of the treaty of peace all danger has disappeared, and there is no longer any necessity for the presence of the first-class warships and the coast defense monitors.

A large number of smaller craft will remain, however, until the arrival of the islands of the Philippine archipelago to prevent the landing of filibustering expeditions, but these have been supplied by the purchase of a number of small craft, which have been armed and now ready for service. The larger ships of the Asiatic Squadron are still on the Asiatic station, and these will be ample for all needs, as operations in the future will be conducted by the army exclusively, except when the rebels get near enough the coast of the islands to permit such vessels as the gunboats, gunboats, and the smaller gunboats will be required in the islands indefinitely, even after the surrender of the Filipinos and the restoration of order.

LIQUID AIR AT LOW COST.

A Plant Has Been Established in New York City and Is in Practical Operation.

For the first time in this country a plant has been established and practically operated for the production of liquid air. This plant has been devised and constructed under the direction of Oscar P. Ostergard and Louis Berger, of the firm of Ostergard & Berger, 107 Second street, New York city. It is capable, with 100 horse power, developed by steam, of manufacturing about 1,500 gallons of liquefied air in 24 hours, or about a gallon per minute.

Its practical success is demonstrated by the two facts that it can produce liquefied air, comparing equal expenditure of power, three times as rapidly as the best apparatus devised by Prof. Linde, of Munich, and at a cost of about one-half the cost of the apparatus of Prof. Linde.

Others have been working at their project for about three years and have perfected it, so far as the device itself is concerned, although they expect to improve the machinery so as to reduce further the cost of manufacturing the liquefied air from six to eight cents a gallon, as at present, to about two cents a gallon.

HIRD GIRL PROBLEM.

A Forward Step to Be Taken at New York—Interest of Information to Be Established.

Another step has been taken in the effort to help the girl who is where she is not large mains. Brownell claims the entire pipe service of these cities will have to be gone over and that most of the pipes will be found in a very dangerous condition.

"A practical, tactful woman will be engaged as superintendent. She will examine applicants for places as to their actual knowledge of the work they propose to understand, and will permit no charitable appeals for support.

WORTH MORE THAN GOLD.

Copper Coins in China Present a Most Extraordinary Problem for Adjustment.

The sudden rise in copper is responsible for extraordinary difficulties now confronting the Chinese government, according to United States Consul Fowler. The result has been that the cash, or subsidiary Chinese coin, is now worth much more than its token value in silver. In fact the Chinese government is paying 1.35 taels for the copper silver and out of which is needed enough cash to make one tael in the aggregate. The consul says that in the end the present great scarcity in cash will cause the issue of silver subsidiary coinage.

AT LIGHTNING SPEED.

Huber-Tired, Tubular-Framed Engine to Run Three Miles a Minute.

With a rubber-tired railway engine, built like a bicycle and driven by electricity, the seeker of rapid transit will soon be able to ride from New York to Boston in less time than it takes to ride to a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Oberlin Smith, of Bridgeton, N. J., made this prediction seriously at the closing session of the society's convention at Cape May.

Nichols and his colleagues nodded their heads in agreement. "The engine will be built with a motor, tubular frame and pneumatic tires," said Oberlin Smith. "The wheels will have steel spokes. There is no reason why it should not run from New York to Philadelphia in half an hour." That would be at the rate of thirty miles a minute, counting stoppages, if any.

A Relic of Old Paris.

A very curious relic of old Paris is a remarkable alchemical instrument, built by the celebrated alchemist, palmist and philanthropist Nicholas Flamel. It is one of the few specimens of fifteenth century architecture still to be seen in the French capital.

The upper floors were built upon the remains of an old church, and the interior walls are covered with paintings of saints and scenes from the lives of the saints.

The floor is paved with stones, and the ceiling is supported by four pillars.

It is a relic of the old Paris of the early micoene period. It is classified scientifically as a mammal of the order ungulata, suborder artiodactyla.

The entelodon, also spelled entelodon, has not been very minutely described by natural historians, owing chiefly, it is supposed, to a lack of specimens.

and assembled in the Philippines, Canada and Porto Rico to make recommendations concerning changes in the armament nations, only slight additions will be made.

The board in Manila recommended that dried fruits be added to the ration, but Gen. Weston had until yesterday this by the shipment of a large quantity of dried fruit to Manila.

Underwood said the rate of sugar will be increased, meat serving in the tropics seeming to desire more sweet than those serving in the north.

Yours Choice of Climate.

While the east coast endures with the thermometer close to the century mark, Salt Lake City and its environs were being visited with a frost severe enough to kill nearly all the growing vegetable crops.

Exempt from Jury Service.

There are in New York city about 100,000 who are exempt by law or circumstances from jury service.

EXPORTS OF FARM PRODUCTS.

Great Falling Off in the Foreign Demand for the Headstuffs of This Country.

There is a marked decrease in the export movement of products of the field and farm, following the fall of the market for bacon, and the sales of headstuffs abroad for the 11 months of this fiscal year were $20,701,474 less than for the same period last year. There was a decrease of $2,235,610 in corn and $2,252,443 in flour, but an increase of $3,387,500 in flour.

The exports of domestic animals dropped $8,450,408, and of cotton $21,713,400, while provisions and dairy products showed a gain of $5,350,911.

It thus appears that in domestic animal products there has been a marked decrease.
